I remember my childhood very well. We weren't rich. We lived in a small house, on a farm. I used to get up at half past five every day. We didn't have a bathroom, so I used to wash in the kitchen. Before I went to school, I used to feed the pigs and cows. We didn't have a car and we didn't have money for the bus. I used to walk to school. I used to help with the housework. We didn't have a TV, so we used to listen to the radio in the evening and we played games in the streets. We didn't have nice shops, cinemas, sports centres, but life used to be much slower and simpler.
