

Been or Gone

Complete the sentences with been or gone.

1. The museum is empty. Everybody has been / gone home because it's midnight.
2. He's just been / gone to the bank, you could ask him to lend you some money.
3. Since I won the lottery I've been / gone to Bahamas twice.
4. You're late. Where have you been / gone Mum is really angry with you!
5. Someone offered Rita a new job at Harrods, the famous department store, and she has been / gone to London immediately.
6. Anna was here earlier but I think she has been / gone now.
7. Nadia left Tom two weeks ago. She has been / gone away with another boy.
8. Paul has been / gone to the hospital this morning. He hasn't got home so far.
9. A: "I haven't seen Sam for ages?
B: "Didn't you know? She's been / gone to Paris for a year.
10. My father is having a shower. He's just been / gone back from the gym.
11. It's time to party. My parents have been / gone out tonight.
12. William has decided to take a day off and he's been / gone fishing.
13. I can't meet Jane this week because she's been / gone abroad for a fortnight.
14. I've been / gone to the museum to see the exhibition on the Great War. It was a bit dull to be honest.
15. He doesn't know what to do about his college choice. He's visited almost twenty to see what they are like. Now he has been / gone away for a few days to think about it.
16. Mike! It's midnight! We were worried about you. Where were you been / gone?
17. I can't find my cat. I saw it this morning but it's nowhere now. It has been / gone!
18. Claire must be exhausted. It's ten and she has already been / gone to bed.
19. Let's have dinner. Susan's just been / gone to the market so the fridge must be full.
20. I still haven't been / gone to Prague but I hope to go one day. I've heard it's impressive!
21. My grandpa always says that things are different now – those days have long been / gone!
22. I've been waiting for you for an hour at the bus stop! Where were you been / gone?

